Promoting Cowboy Action Shooting

Over the last month, the Regulators have been out and about promoting Cowboy Action Shooting. Here is where they have been.

Boy Scout Camporee

The Regulators set up a display for the Conococheague District Camporee. We displayed the firearms used in our game and with dummy ammo, ran through some scenarios. Thanks to Annie Dote, Slim Chance Pistolero, Letort Lawman and Tuscarora Slim for manning the display and explaining Cowboy Action Shooting to the Scouts and their leaders.

Shermans Valley Heritage Days

As we have for several years, the Regulators were invited to have a display at Heritage Days. Several hundred people stopped by to see what Cowboy Action Shooting is all about. Again we displayed the firearms used in our game and with dummy ammo, ran through some scenarios. Thanks to Annie Dote, Slim Chance Pistolero, Stiches, Letort Lawman and Tuscarora Slim for their help in making it a successful weekend. A special thank you to Buckle Bob for making our participation possible.

Mark Keller Annual Trap Shoot

Mark is the state representative for Perry County. For several years he has held a trap shoot at Ickesburg Sportsmen's Assoc. He invited the Regulators to set up a display and do a demonstration for the folks attending the trap shoot. Annie Dote, Slim Chance Pistolero, Buckle Bob and Tuscarora Slim explained what Cowboy Action Shooting is about and demonstrated some of the various types of equipment and shooting styles.
